

Guidance for Higher Education—Public Health Guidance—web resource (changing)

Colorado's guidance for higher education recommends we “leverage all student communication channels to educate and reinforce responsible behaviors.” Due to the changing nature of public health guidance, we have been told that we should not place the guidelines on our syllabi. Rather, these guidelines should be placed on Canvas pages so that we may quickly edit as health recommendations evolve.