Parliamentary Motions—Quick Reference

These are the thirteen ranking motions. When any motion on the list is pending, no motion of a lower rank is in order. Main motions are the lowest in order and may be made only when no other business is pending.

The five motions at the top of the chart are Privileged Motions that do not relate to pending business, but relate to special matters of immediate and overriding importance and are allowed to interrupt the consideration of anything else.

Motions below the blank line are Subsidiary Motions and assist the assembly in treating or disposing of a main motion.

- Appeal from a Decision of the Chair

Non-interruption Incidental Motions

- Discharge a Committee
- Reconsider
PARLIAMENTARY MOTIONS - WHAT THEY MEAN

1. Fix the Time to adjourn - purpose is to set the time (and/or place) for another meeting to continue business of the session. It has no effect on when the present meeting will adjourn.

2. Adjourn - means to close the meeting. A privileged motion to adjourn is to close the meeting immediately. It is not a privileged motion if qualified in any way, as to adjourn at, or to, a future time.

3. Suspend the Rules - generally used to permit the assembly to do something which would violate its general rules (except bylaws) such as changing agenda order or considering an item not on the agenda.

4. Lay on the Table - enables the assembly to lay the pending question aside temporarily when something more urgent has arisen. Its effect is to halt consideration of a question immediately, without debate.

5. Previous Question - the motion used to bring the assembly to an immediate vote on one or more pending questions. It is used to immediately close debate and prevents the making of subsidiary motions except to lay on the table.

6. Limit or Extend Debate - one of two motions the assembly can use to exercise special control over debate on a pending question. It can be used to reduce the number or length of speeches, or to require an end to debate at a particular time. It can also be used to increase the time available to speakers or to the deliberation on the question.

7. Postpone to a Certain Time (definitely) - a motion to defer discussion of a pending question to a definite day, meeting, hour, or until after a certain event. This motion can be used regardless of how much debate there has been on the motion it proposes to postpone.

8. Commit or Refer to Committee - this is generally used to send a pending question to a committee so that the question may be investigated, providing the assembly with more information or a recommendation, or to put the motion into better form (in clearer or better wording) for the assembly to consider.

9. Amend - a motion to modify the wording--and to some extent the meaning–of a pending question before the assembly. A pending motion may be modified by adding or deleting words and phrases, or by a combination of these--i.e., to strike out some words and insert others. It can also be used to substitute one paragraph or the entire text of a resolution or main motion. Amendments must be germane to the main motion.

10. Postpone Indefinitely - a motion which means the assembly declines to take a position on the main question. Its adoption kills the main motion and avoids a direct vote on the question.

11. Main motion - the motion which brings any general matter of business before the assembly. Any formal proposal.

12. Reconsider - enables a majority in an assembly to bring back for further consideration a motion which has already been voted on. Complex rules.

13. Rescind or Amend - motions which enable an assembly to change and action previously taken. An entire motion or any part of it may be rescinded or amended.

To: CSU System Board of Governors
Date: June 4, 2020
From: Current & Incoming Faculty Council Officers, CSU Fort Collins
Subject: Effective Shared Governance Defines a Great Land Grant University

Madame Chair and Board of Governors, thank you for the opportunity to offer comment. The June Board of Governor’s meetings do not include faculty and student report. Therefore, we wish to use this public forum to offer a few comments regarding the critical importance of shared governance, especially in these difficult times.

All of us agree that an effective shared governance defines a great land grant university. Yet, in the last few weeks, both shared governance and adherence to the CSU-Fort Collins Academic Faculty and Administrative Professional Manual have been disregarded. With difficult budget decisions looming, we believe these decisions will be better informed and more effective if the Board of Governors and CSU leadership consults and works with us.

We offer, by way of example, the recent direction by the BoG telling CSU leadership to notify those non-tenure-track-faculty (NTTF) with contracts expiring in May 2020 that their contracts would be allowed to expire. Had the BoG and CSU leadership consulted with us before making this decision, we would have argued against it and faculty churn relating to contract expirations could have been avoided. The lack of notification one year ahead violated the Manual, but more importantly the decision and its chaotic, inconsistent implementation had a damaging effect on the morale of faculty.

In recent years contracts have represented a measure of the university’s commitment to NTTF in light of their sustained loyalty and high performance. It is only after 10 semesters of sustained superb teaching, with evaluations at the exceptional or superior level, that NTTF become eligible for contract. Beyond signaling commitment, contracts have directly affected the university’s ability to retain the most talented of the NTTF in whom we have invested substantial university resources. In recent years and largely as result of the university’s commitment to them, NTTF, who represent over 40% of the faculty, have been increasingly able to engage in the numerous initiatives directed toward supporting student success. Now more than ever, given the enrollment challenges resulting from both COVID-19 and emerging demographic and economic trends, we need these committed and talented instructors in our learning environments.

In addition, we have just completed one of the most difficult semesters of teaching in the history of the university. In terms of the undergraduate instruction, NTTF did much of the heavy lifting during this challenge, going above and beyond the call of duty to meet student needs. These faculty not only moved their courses online, they supported students who were unable to access their courses electronically. All NTTF quickly developed new expertise in technologies and now most are working in their unpaid summer months to prepare their courses for improved online and hybrid delivery in the fall. The withdrawal of contracts signaled uncertainty and a lack of valuing of these faculty, injuring them at a time when unity is needed.
On behalf of Faculty Council, we want to thank you for your established support of NTTF, especially as shown through your endorsement of the appointment changes codified in the Faculty Manual in Spring 2018. We want to thank President McConnell for her ongoing support of NTTF as well as the sustained support that Chancellor Frank and Provost Miranda have provided over the years to NTTF. We ask you now to continue this support through a renewed commitment to NTTF contracts, shared governance, and the Manual.

Board of Governors, thank you for your time and for the opportunity to offer this public comment.
AGENDA
Faculty Council Meeting
Tuesday, May 5, 2020
3:45 p.m. Gathering; 4:00 Business – Microsoft Teams

May 5, 2020 FACULTY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEMS:

I. Proposed Faculty Council Agenda – May 5, 2020 – Microsoft Teams – 3:45pm.

A. ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Next Faculty Council Meeting – September 1, 2020 – 4:00 PM – place and format TBD

Tim Gallagher reviews the mechanics of meeting in Teams—audio and visual off, request to speak in the chat box area, etc.

2. Graduate Student Council Advising Awards

Matthew Saxton presents the awards on behalf of the Graduate Student Council. Chair of the Graduate Student Council, Dylan Parker, Ph.D. Candidate, Biochemistry & Molecular Biology, submitted this explanation for the faculty selections by email after being unable to get onto the Teams teleconference call:

“Professor Asa Ben-hur, Computer Science, and Professor Francisco Ortega, Computer Science, both received the Graduate Student Council Advising Award because their graduate students praised them for their innovative research and creativity as with many of the applications, but they stood out for their efforts to provide support and direction to graduate students as mentors during this trying time. By creating a cohesive community throughout their departments and the university, we believe that these professors exemplify the purpose of this mentoring award.”

Gallagher explains that documentation of these awards will occur when a return to in-person circumstances allows.

Antonio Pedros-Gascon recommends that we have the award winners be honored in the fall.

3. Faculty Council Harry Rosenberg Distinguished Service Award – Announcement of recipient

Gallagher explains the history of the award, including that Sue Pendell continues to sponsor this award. The 2020 winner is Dr. Jenni Morse, Chair of the Committee on Non Tenure-Track Faculty. The nomination language from one letter writer was read aloud and note Dr. Morse’s long service and leadership to the Committee on Non Tenure-Track Faculty.
4. Executive Committee Meeting Minutes forthcoming to FC website

Gallagher explains that Faculty Council was unable to upload the Executive Committee minutes in the absence of an Executive Administrative Assistant.

Steve Reising moves for the approval to these changes. This code change was sent two weeks ago as required for all code changes. Reising speaks to the motion.

Jenny Morse speaks to the importance of this section to Committee on Non-Tenure Track Faculty and supports the changes that are recommended. Jenny speaks to the idea that only some faculty are being counted for representation while all faculty should be counted. She requests that Committee on Non-Tenure Track Faculty’s proposal be brought to Faculty Council at the first meeting in the fall.

The motion carries unanimously.

5. New Degree: Ph.D. in Music Therapy to be established effective Fall 2020 in the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance – University Curriculum Committee (pp. 23-24)

Motion carries unanimously.

F. REPORTS TO BE RECEIVED

1. Provost/Executive Vice President – Rick Miranda
Miranda: Follows up on the note from the President from last week regarding what the university will look like in the Fall with goal of an in-person, open campus if that is legally possible. Other possibilities are being developed as need calls for such as testing and tracing protocols, residence hall arrangements. There are a dozen working groups that are making recommendations for how the university will function. The budget proposals will be handled by the Board at the June meeting. Work will continue during the summer for fall delivery. Space, student life, research, engagement, remote outreach. Many components being examined. Workforce support as well. A whole committee focusing on the health components. A great deal of activity is going on to make things go well in the fall, as it must to attract students, maintain reputation. Miranda invites questions about planning.

Matthew Malcolm, states that he has a two-part question: He appreciates the challenges the university is facing. States that it seems that faculty are being asked to prepare for both face-to-face and online delivery. Points out the challenges associated with the development of online delivery when faculty are moving off contract for the summer months. Points out that we don’t have a lot of time to prepare for both delivery methods. Asks: Is it OK for a department to decide now that we are going to deliver content all on-line for the fall so that faculty have time to develop their course content properly?

Miranda: Does not think that this is the best way to think about things. We will need to provide online options but we are also hoping for in-person experiences for most of our students which means doing some planning that would enable us to go either way, or to also include hybrid delivery. Recognizes that this is a lot and that we are just catching our breath from the spring. We are going to need to work through the summer. We would prefer to have a more deliberate approach but that takes time and resources and we are looking for where those resources come from. There will be opportunities to work with instructional designers during the summer. We will not be able to develop online courses the way we prefer, deliberately and carefully. We will create the highest quality we can under the circumstances.

Karen Barrett: Brings up the need for social distancing in the event that we do have in-person classes. Are there plans to use the middle option?

Miranda: The in-person scenario is some version of a new normal with reconfiguration of classes to reduce class sizes. The middle scenario would be classes being half and half. Fully online modality for some classes to accommodate in-person classes that are best run this way.

Miranda: Goes on to a discussion of budget. Enrollment is likely to be down 10%. Tuition revenue down approximately $30 Million in addition to a 10-20% cut in state appropriations. If we raise tuition that might provide $8 million so a negative impact of between $37-52 million is likely. There are also additional expenses that we cannot avoid. Revenues going down with additional expenses yields a downward impact of between $45-60 million. These are numbers that are comparable to what happened 10 years ago—approximately 10% of ENG budget. Salary reductions, furloughs, budget cuts to units with ENG funding, retirement incentives, retirement contribution timeout—all are being considered. It’s possible that federal stimulus money could come in. We must look for ways to increase enrollment, retain and recruit students. A version of this will be presented to the Board tomorrow but a more thorough report will be made to the Board in June.

Mary Meyer: Partially online and partially on campus—Masters in Statistics. Suggests this model for other units.

Miranda: 60 classrooms are set up to do the Echo 360 delivery such as Mary Meyer refers to. We may outfit more classroom in this way this summer.

Pedros-Gascon: Asks about the President’s recent email. What constitutes “impact” particularly in the current context? Would also like to have the President more accessible to Faculty Council to answer this question directly.

Miranda: Agrees that it would be better for the President to speak to her own language. But states: Our land-grant heritage is in service to the State so when the Presidents points to the value of the university and the impact of research to the state of Colorado she is referring to the impact of the land grant mission to the state.

John Elder: Asks about the fall semester. Wonders about colleagues who are part of a “vulnerable population” in terms of health concerns and classroom spaces.

Miranda: Will have to see what develops but there should be plenty to do in all sectors of our instructional mission.

Miranda: States: This is my final Faculty Council meeting. He thanks the Faculty Council for its good will and engaging efforts over the years. He reports that most Provosts do not have the cordial relationship with their Faculty Council that he has enjoyed.

Faculty express appreciation.

Silvia Canetto: Wants to follow up with questions about possible cuts to athletics and especially football as a potential source of revenue for the university.

Miranda: Most of their budget is not part of the ENG budget. They raise their own money for the most part but where it does contribute to the ENG budget, there will be impacts.

Sylvia Canetto: States that athletics cuts should be more substantial due to not being essential to the goals/mission of the university.

2. Faculty Council Chair – Tim Gallagher

Gallagher: Speaks to his appreciation to the university and the essential nature of the faculty to overall university function. It is critical that the Faculty voice be heard. Speaks to the future. He has heard some faculty say that service on Faculty Council does not matter. But it is more important than ever. We need to have a prominent seat at the table. We are One Faculty, those on and off the tenure-track. Meaningful conversation must occur. He hopes that President McConnell will attend the Faculty Council and the Executive Committee in the next year. The President typically attends one Faculty Council meeting and one Executive Committee meeting each semester. He states his inability to get the President to attend Faculty Council and the Executive Committee as a failure of his leadership.

3. Board of Governors Faculty Representative – Stephanie Clemons

The Board of Governors held a special Board Meeting via Zoom on April 8, 2020. Due to the COVID-19 virus, the State of Colorado approached CSU-Pueblo about the potential of leasing buildings as temporary healthcare facilities. Motion made and approved: to authorize President Tim Mottet, CSU-Pueblo to negotiate with the State of Colorado concerning use of certain facilities at CSU-Pueblo for healthcare facilities.

Next Board of Governor’s meeting is tomorrow, May 6 – 7, 2020. It will be held remotely.

No questions followed this Clemons’ report.

4. Report by Faculty Ombuds, Kathy Rickard, of Types of Concerns and Issues Dealt With (pp. 25-29)

Kathy Rickard is unable to attend due to a family illness.

Canetto speaks to additional concerns. She requests aggregate data (by sex, college) on the profile of persons who contact the faculty ombuds. She also requests information on the typical issues leading to the contact, and the outcomes of the contact/dispositions. Such information would be used by administration to prevent recurring problems and to systemically improve faculty climate.

Pedros-Gascon speaks in support of Canetto’s request for a significantly different report from the Ombuds. We need a better understanding of where the biggest issues are and these are not clear from the current report. Requests a return to this issue in the fall.

G. DISCUSSION
June 16, 2020 FACULTY COUNCIL AGENDA ITEMS:

NOTE: Roughly 100 in attendance, 93 invited by Tim Gallagher.

A. ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Next Faculty Council Meeting – September 1, 2020 – Microsoft Teams – 4:00pm

Tim Gallagher states that this meeting is a special faculty council meeting with its primary purpose to allow faculty members to hear from President McConnell regarding the budget and the pandemic.

Gallagher reviews the mechanics of meeting in Teams—audio and visual off, request to speak in the chat box area, etc. Asks that people use the chat area to submit questions or requests to speak instead of using the “raise hand” feature.

2. Message from President Joyce McConnell

President McConnell: Begins by thanking the faculty for allowing her to address them and that she has an opportunity to say thank you for everything they are doing.

Gallagher: Mentions the timing of the special meeting was because they knew the Board of Governors would have met regarding the budget. Asks President McConnell to speak to the legislature regarding the overall state budget concerning higher education and the CSU budget.

President McConnell: Makes note that both the state and county budgets are in a tight spot and that we are feeling the pinch. Governor had announced that the CSU system would receive $90 million from the CARES Act, but then the next day, the joint budget committee cut higher education funding by 58%. Is concerned that we will not know the full impact of the cut until December when the CARES Act funding runs out. The Board has agreed to use some of its reserves to assist and CSU may only have a $60-80 million shortfall compared to the originally anticipated $164 million. Feels they have come out of the budget process, both at the federal and state level, and along with the Board’s assistance and refinancing some debt, in much better shape than originally thought. Was happy that they could not only preserve jobs, but could preserve salaries.
Gallagher: Thanks President McConnell for speaking to the budget. Opens the floor to questions, requests only budget-related questions be submitted at this time.

Mary Van Buren: States that she is relieved that job and salary cuts were avoided. Asks about potential budget cuts for next year and if the decision-making regarding budget cuts be devolved to individual units, or if there will be a university-wide reduction in pay.

President McConnell: State is concerned about economy and lack of tax revenue. Predictions at the state level anticipate about a three-year recovery. The use of the retirement (separation) incentive may help save some money in case other budget cuts are necessary. When determining the budget cuts and reduction in pay, there was a line drawn so anyone earning under $65,000 would receive no reduction. This was based on the most recent research on what was the minimum income needed for a family of 4 in Fort Collins. If they were considering salary cuts, a progressive proposal was suggested so that those who earned more had a higher cut.

Mary Meyer: Requests that President McConnell address the resolution on budget priorities passed by the faculty council recently.

President McConnell: Ensures that educational excellence has been put front and center with regards to the budget, and that includes the well-being and support of the faculty. Worked with the budget to take cuts elsewhere so that there were no salary reductions. These priorities will remain in place for next year, as well as support for faculty in terms of IT and library. Mentions to all faculty in the meeting that they are interested in increasing the stipends for our graduate students. Would like some input on this from Faculty Council.

Cynthia Brown: Thanks President McConnell for her efforts to avoid impact to university employees. Asks what the process and priorities are for allowing departments to rehire faculty lines due to people retiring.

President McConnell: We are not really thinking of them in lines. We are purely thinking about them because it was a way to make a difference in budget and not cut people’s salaries. We wanted to make savings where we could during the duration of the CARES Act. It is not so much that it disappears but goes centrally so salaries do not need to be cut. If we receive more money from the state or from enrollment revenue, it may be possible that those positions can be filled.

Mary Van Buren relays a question from Steve Mumme: Asks what the university policy with regards to faculty teaching classes in the fall.

President McConnell: We are trying to accommodate everyone who does not want to have to teach in-person classes. What we do not know yet is whether that will leave on-campus classes uncovered. What is needing to be determined is the process of figuring out how many sections we need of anything given the square footage of particular classrooms. This will determine how many we need teaching face-to-face versus how many we can assign to remote classes.

Antonio Pedros-Gascon: Thanks President McConnell for drawing a line in the sand with regards to salaries. Curious about spending in sports separate from spending in education. Expressed disappointment in the disconnect between the Board and our institution and faculty, and hope that it will improve during President McConnell’s tenure.

President McConnell: Does have to work more closely with the Board, and is hopeful she can inform them of our mission more. Would like to work with the Faculty Council to see how we can highlight our faculty to the Board and to engage the Board more.

Pedros-Gascon: Asks if there is any update on the Provost search.

President McConnell: There is, and once she receives a confirmation, she will be able to provide an announcement.

Karen Barrett: States she is appreciative of President McConnell’s comments about priorities with the budget. Wishes to clarify that with the progressive approach, everyone would have the same percentage cut. Mary Van Buren clarifies that people who make more would have a higher percentage cut and that there would be brackets.

President McConnell: Was originally working with a progressive pay cut model if pay cuts would become necessary. As the salary got higher, the percentage cut would rise.

Wes Kenney: Assuming that University Policy cannot extend beyond state policy regarding numbers in teaching/performance spaces, how soon after a policy change by the state can we expect it to trickle down into CSU policy?

President McConnell: It really depends on viral transmission. Once the county makes the decision based on what the governor says, then we will make a decision. It is typically made in conjunction with the local hospitals. Based on recent decisions, the governor would likely make a decision at the beginning of the month, with the county taking 1-2 weeks following that to change their guidelines, and then another 1-2 weeks for us to change our guidelines. Will discuss with preparedness team to see if guidelines can be changed quicker.

Kenney: Believes it will affect enrollment, especially in the arts. Unsure what fall will look like, especially after fall break.

President McConnell: Clarified that the decision to not bring back students back from fall break was a health decision to decrease the likelihood of exposure. Possibility for exceptions for final performances and those who want to stay.

Miranda: The intention overall for closing shop at fall break need not be universal. May be able to allow students to stay for those final two weeks with social distancing and health protocols in place.

Kenney: Hopeful to be able to disseminate some information to students who are questioning even coming in the fall.
President McConnell: Believes the performance opportunities are there, more concerned about the audience.

Kenney: We are considering live-streaming all performances. Waiting to see what studies determine about dispersion in performing.

B. REPORTS TO BE RECEIVED

1. Chair of the Faculty Council – Tim Gallagher

Tim Gallagher: Has two things to bring to the Faculty Council’s attention. The first concern is with regards to the Tutor.com option available through Canvas for our students. There have been concerns raised regarding the reputation of this online service. There are also concerns that Tutor.com is providing material differently than what is presented in class, as well as the lack of need for it for the upper-level classes. States that he was not aware if the faculty was consulted about this. Has reached out to the administration and hopes to receive more details. The second part of his report is with regards to a memorandum of understanding he was sent by CSU Online that discusses how he should be presenting his synchronous and asynchronous material for his RI classes in the fall. Found the document to be problematic. Has discussed this with the provost’s office and CSU Online. Has been told the document has been around for several years. He was being asked to come up with a refresh of online material for those courses with online content, and ties into the question of ownership of academic materials. One of the problematic areas of the document states that other instructors may be allowed to teach the class using the materials that other instructors have produced.

Rick Miranda: Has been in close communication with CSU Online colleagues about the MOU for instructional development and the Tutor.com issues. Has a meeting tomorrow afternoon on the Tutor.com topic with them. States that with the MOU, almost all players have changed since it was developed, but that it was reviewed by the Faculty Council Committee on Teaching and Learning and OGC at the time. Should have more information in the next week or so.

Candance Mathiason asks Tim Gallagher to share what “RI” stands for. Randall Boone clarifies that it means “Resident Instruction”.

2. Incoming Chair of the Faculty Council – Sue Doe

Sue Doe: Wanted to thank the patience of the budget committee and for those involved in the decisions regarding budget cuts. Was excited to hear that President McConnell wanted to highlight the faculty with regards to the Board. Wants others to understand the workload of the faculty and the range of things that faculty do on a regular basis. Wanted to recognize the efforts of the faculty to get their classes online, as well as working over the summer to make their classes better, sometimes without compensation. Parties outside of the university may not understand everything they do. Would be interested in inviting at least two members of the Board of Governors to visit us for every Faculty Council meeting. Believes it would be helpful in highlighting the range of ways faculty works. Wants to propose spending at least 10 minutes at the end of each faculty meeting to highlight two faculty members and what they are currently working on. Hoping to create a more robust shared governance around central issues with some task forces.

Matthew Malcolm: Appreciative of Sue Doe’s comments regarding unpaid summer work.

Steven Reising: States his thanks regarding Sue Doe’s comments about everything faculty is doing.

Candance Mathiason: Suggests that the Board of Governors come see the research labs as well.

President McConnell: Mentions that several Board members visited labs last fall and appreciated the inside look into what faculty were doing.

Dawn DeTienne states that she is finding it difficult to conduct research using the library resources due to working remotely using Pulse Secure. Stated that is was determined that you must log out of Pulse Secure to use library resources, and the re-log in and then log-out, and so on. Was wondering when the issue would be resolved. Karen Estlund from the libraries agrees to address this question. Melinda Smith suggests installing LibKey in Google Chrome. Christianne Magee suggests using OneDrive as a secure storage cloud site rather than Pulse CSU as a workaround for the issue.

Karen Estlund: When first moving remote, the VPN was prioritized for HR and financial resources with regards to bandwidth. In the last month, the Pulse Secure problem should have been solved, so if there are issues with a particular database, reach out to the libraries so they can reach out to the vendor. Suggests beginning on the library website to avoid authentication issues on the vendor page.

3. Board of Governors – Stephanie Clemons

Stephanie Clemons: Expresses appreciation for both Tim Gallagher’s and Sue Doe’s leadership, as well as that of President McConnell.

Gallagher: Wanted to take a moment to express appreciation for everything Provost Rick Miranda has done for the university.

Clemons: The Board met June 3-5, 2020. The report was distributed by Tim Gallagher. We received quite a few public comments by electronic methods and wanted to thank everyone who took the time to provide the public comments. Parking rates stayed flat, we do have parking improvements going on. There was also a demographic change with CSU Global during April and May. It shifted from typically age 35 with children, and is now more significantly between the ages of 23 and 30. CSU Global has 10,500 new students. The next Board of Governors meeting will be over Zoom on August 6-7, 2020. Will be confirmed that it is over Zoom.

Doe: Expresses appreciation to anyone who provided a public comment for the Board of Governors meeting.
Pedros-Gascon: Had a question about the last Board of Governors meeting. Was confused that it lasted 3 days, but only one day was open for public scrutiny.

Clemons: Clarified the actual agenda was only a day and a half. They evaluated the first day, took Thursday off, and met on Friday for a half day. Part of the agenda had changed due to the current circumstances and that faculty and students did not need to submit reports.

Minutes approved by the University Curriculum Committee on 5/11/20.

Brad Goetz, Chair
Shelly Ellerby and Susan Horan, Curriculum & Catalog
I am pleased to accept the nomination to the position of Vice Chair of Faculty Council. Here, I offer my candidacy and seek the support of the members of Faculty Council. If elected to this position, I would work to continue and strengthen the role of Faculty Council in shared governance at Colorado State University. I fully agree with Sue Doe that the scholarship, teaching and engagement we do will be stronger if the faculty is active and fully engaged in decision making at the university. Now more than ever, with the pandemic likely to lead to deep budget cuts, it is imperative that we not wait for top-down plans for how to manage cuts, but propose ideas from the ground up, using our deep and broad knowledge of the institution, and keeping equity in mind through that process. My candidacy rests on my knowledge of the university, its structures and its people, my experience in leadership and connections across campus, and my deep appreciation for the importance of scholarship and education in American society.

I have served on Faculty Council several times, representing my department or the college as an at-large member. Additionally, I just completed service on the Committee on Faculty Governance (CoFG), including serving as Co-Chair of that committee last year. My time working on the CoFG deepened my knowledge and appreciation of the Academic Faculty and Administrative Professional Manual as a whole, and particularly the Code (Section C). As Sue Doe noted in her candidate statement last spring, the Manual has the authority of law behind it, and as such, through the Manual, Faculty Council wields tremendous power. That power also gives us responsibility to not only other faculty members, but also to staff. Through the Manual, we can protect academic freedom and embed equity into university structures. As Vice Chair, I will encourage members of faculty council to engage their constituents to participate fully in revisions to the manual that effect positive changes that support faculty, staff, students, and the university as a whole.

In addition to the service on Faculty Council and CoFG, I have held other positions that have given me experience that will help me serve effectively as Vice Chair. For example, I currently serve as Co-Chair of the President’s Council for Gender Equity on the Faculty (CoGen), and as Director of the Graduate Degree Program in Ecology, CSU’s longest standing and first interdisciplinary program. Previously, I served as Chair of the College of Agriculture’s Diversity Catalyst Team, and Chair of my department’s graduate education program. In these roles and others, I have developed strong and positive working relationships with people across campus. I am confident that these relationships will facilitate communication and strengthen my ability to advocate for faculty and staff and strengthen faculty governance.

I continue to have an abiding passion for scholarship and education. My scholarship in evolutionary ecology and agricultural sciences has been successfully and continually funded by national competitive grants (USDA, NSF) in my 20 years at CSU, and I have published well by the standards of my field, in disciplinary journals as well as broader ones. My teaching includes a core course in the LIFE curriculum, which I chose over smaller courses within my department to be able to connect with and positively influence more students. In the role of Vice Chair, I would do my utmost to support strong scholarship and education across the institution.

Thank you for considering my candidacy. If elected, I will labor diligently to support Sue Doe in her role as Chair, to protect and defend the rights and responsibilities of faculty members.
Candidate Statement

Steven C. Reising, Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering
Nominee for Vice Chair of Faculty Council
Fall 2020

I am pleased to accept the nomination for Vice Chair of Faculty Council. I am writing to express the motivation for my candidacy and ask for the support of the members of Faculty Council. I enthusiastically support strong faculty governance and its ability to effect change in the university. If elected, I will work to build on and enhance the current strengths of Faculty Council in shared governance of Colorado State University.

I concur with Sue Doe’s candidate statement for Faculty Council Chair in Spring 2020, and her resolve to increase the effectiveness of our role in shared governance at CSU. I am committed to working together with her and the members of Faculty Council to enhance our effectiveness in communicating with the campus community. We need to increase awareness in the community, and particularly among faculty, of our mandate and ability as an assembly of scholars to fully participate in shared governance of CSU. We need continue to be a creative force by providing new ideas and present solutions from the ground up, rather than waiting for decisions to come from the top down.

We all know that faculty members are united in our motivation to pursue top-quality, innovative teaching, research, service, scholarship and creative activity. At the same time, we faculty need to recognize that our academic freedom and pursuit of research, innovation and ideas depend upon and are enhanced by our ability to engage in shared governance. As the Faculty Council Chair discussed in a verbal report last spring, our Manual has the authority of law behind it, and thereby provides the opportunity to assert, protect and defend faculty rights along with our attendant responsibilities. Therefore, we need to continue to increase awareness among faculty of the importance of our committed engagement in shared governance. At the same time, we need to continue the on-going process of enhancing the involvement of non-tenure track faculty (NTTF) in shared governance. We also need to strengthen our communication with ASCSU and other student organizations on campus so that we are further informed by the perspectives of our students. Academic freedom protects the free exchange of research and ideas, but at the same time provides us with the solemn responsibility to educate and value our students who are, in the end, our most important contribution to the State of Colorado, our nation and the world.

I have demonstrated my commitment to the mission and values of Faculty Council since 2007, when I was first elected as the ECE Department Representative to Faculty Council. Since that time, I have served as a Faculty Council member continuously, interrupted only by my sabbatical in Spring 2014. As the College of Engineering Representative to the Committee on University Programs for 6 years (2009-2015), I gained great appreciation for the importance and effectiveness of the faculty’s oversight role in the initiation and periodic review of CSU’s cross-disciplinary research centers. As the College of Engineering Representative to Executive Committee for nearly 7 years between 2010 and 2019, under three successive Faculty Council Chairs, I participated weekly in formulating and making decisions on the agenda for our Faculty Council Meetings as well as discussing weekly with Administration leaders about decisions impacting the future of CSU. Finally, as the College of Engineering Representative to the Committee on Faculty Governance for more than 7 years (Fall 2012-present), I gained knowledge and awareness of the Code (Section C of our Manual) and its ramifications. In particular, as Committee Chair (2019-2020) I led the process of proposing Code changes that were adopted by Faculty Council. Service on Faculty Council provides us with myriad opportunities to reach beyond our own disciplinary boundaries and find connections and commonalities with a diverse group of faculty from across campus in our shared governance of CSU. It is therefore our responsibility to bring together the best ideas of faculty to formulate our unique and powerful voice in the stewardship and shared governance of CSU.

In addition to service on Faculty Council, I have built and demonstrated leadership skills by serving as the Graduate Committee Chair in Electrical and Computer Engineering for the past 15 years. I have also served as a leader in national and international professional societies in my discipline, including as an elected member of the Administrative Committees of IEEE international technical societies for the past 17 years, as well as one of the vice-presidents or committee chairs on the Executive Committees of these societies for the past 12 years. I have also served for a total of 9 years, as Secretary, Chair and Past Chair of the U.S. National Committee of URSI, under the auspices of The National Academies.

Over the past 20 years, I have served as PI of 17 research grants from NASA, NOAA, NSF and many other federal and international agencies, as well as private industries in the Colorado Front Range. I have served for 12 years as Associate Editor of some of the most prestigious journals in the remote sensing field. I have advised many M.S and Ph.D. students, who are now employed in universities, industry and government laboratories. I have taught courses on all levels from first-year students to Ph.D. students, making me deeply aware that our students and the graduates they become are our key contribution to society.

If elected, I will devote my skills and energy tirelessly to supporting Sue Doe as Chair and to promoting a strong and effective faculty role in shared governance of Colorado State University.

SUBJECT:   New Degree: Doctor of Occupational Therapy (O.T.D.)

The University Curriculum Committee moves Faculty Council adopt the following:

   A new Doctor of Occupational Therapy (O.T.D.), to be established effective Fall 2021 in the Department of Occupational Therapy.

According to the request submitted:

Description:

The aim of Colorado State University's Doctor of Occupational Therapy (CSU-OTD) is that graduates of our program, “will be collaborative and enduring change agents and leaders grounded in occupation who positively influence individuals, groups, communities, populations, and the profession.” Occupation refers to the innumerable activities that people need and want to do in their homes, schools, places of work, and communities that impart meaning and purpose to daily life. Occupational therapy is an evidence-based and science-driven profession that enables people of all ages and abilities to live life to the fullest. The profession’s vision for 2025 is: “As an inclusive profession, occupational therapy maximizes health, well-being, and quality of life for all people, populations, and communities through effective solutions that facilitate participation in everyday living” (www.aota.org). An essential feature of the doctorate includes situating an iterative process of learning in real world experiences that are integrated through the curriculum. Engagement in real world experiences culminates in students’ completion of an individualized 14-week full-time doctoral capstone experience and doctoral project. Throughout the three-year, full time (99 credit) program faculty provide ongoing mentorship and advising with the aim of fostering socialization into the occupational therapy profession. This new degree will allow CSU-OT to remain as a leader in occupational therapy education, preparing graduates to become leaders and change agents prepared to meet the occupational needs of our changing society. The program level learning objectives detailed below were created to reflect the aim of the CSU-OTD with full consideration given to the accreditation standards of the American Council on Occupational Therapy Education.

Rationale:

The CSU Occupational Therapy Department is eliminating the Master of Occupational Therapy (MOT) as the entry-level professional degree and replacing it with the Doctor of Occupational Therapy (OTD) as the entry-level professional degree.
The request was reviewed and approved by the Committee on Scholarship, Research and Graduate Education on 4/2/20; the University Curriculum Committee on 4/10/20; the Committee on Strategic and Financial Planning on 5/4/20; and the Council of Deans on 5/20/20.

Program available to students: Fall 2021

College: Health and Human Sciences

Department/Unit: 1573 - Occupational Therapy

Academic Level: Graduate

Program Type: Professional Doctorate

Program Title: Doctor of Occupational Therapy (O.T.D.)

Program Description:
The aim of Colorado State University's Doctor of Occupational Therapy (CSU-OTD) is that graduates of our program, “will be collaborative and enduring change agents and leaders grounded in occupation who positively influence individuals, groups, communities, populations, and the profession.” Occupation refers to the innumerable activities that people need and want to do in their homes, schools, places of work, and communities that impart meaning and purpose to daily life. Occupational therapy is an evidence-based and science-driven profession that enables people of all ages and abilities to live life to the fullest. The profession’s vision for 2025 is: “As an inclusive profession, occupational therapy maximizes health, well-being, and quality of life for all people, populations, and communities through effective solutions that facilitate participation in everyday living” (www.aota.org). An essential feature of the doctorate includes situating an iterative process of learning in real world experiences that are integrated through the curriculum. Engagement in real world experiences culminates in students’ completion of an individualized 14 week full-time doctoral capstone experience and doctoral project. Throughout the three year, full time (99 credit) program faculty provide ongoing mentorship and advising with the aim of fostering socialization into the occupational therapy profession. This new degree will allow CSU-OT to remain as a leader in occupational therapy education, preparing graduates to become leaders and change agents prepared to meet the occupational needs of our changing society. The program level learning objectives detailed below were created to reflect the aim of the CSU-OTD with full consideration given to the accreditation standards of the American Council on Occupational Therapy Education.

The Committee on Responsibilities and Standing of Academic Faculty submits the following:

MOVED, THAT APPENDIX 1 OF THE ACADEMIC FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATIVE PROFESSIONAL MANUAL BE REPLACED BY APPENDIX 1 AND APPENDIX 2 WITH THE TEXTS GIVEN BELOW, AND THAT THE REMAINING APPENDICES BE REORDER AND RENUMBERED AS SHOWN BELOW WITH NO CHANGE TO THEIR TEXTS.

APPENDIX 1: TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT

SECTION 1. POLICY STATEMENT & PURPOSE
Colorado State University (CSU) is a land-grant institution committed to offering access in its educational, scholarly and outreach activities to all individuals representative of our multicultural society and providing an environment of excellence in which all individuals can participate to the full level of their capabilities, realize their aspirations and contribute to the global society in which we live. In this pursuit, the University is committed to providing an environment that respects the dignity and worth of every member of its community. To this end, the University prohibits sexual harassment, as defined in this Policy, by or against any member of or visitor to the CSU community.

The University will respond to reports or information about such incidents of which it has actual knowledge and will work to stop the inappropriate behavior, remediate its effects, and take steps to prevent the recurrence of the prohibited conduct while respecting the rights of all involved.

CSU is required to comply with applicable state and federal statutes, including Title IX of the federal Higher Education Amendment of 1972, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in any education program or activity receiving federal financial aid. Sexual harassment in its various forms is a type of sex discrimination prohibited by Title IX. In the employment context, other federal and state laws and regulations may also apply; see the CSU Policy on Discrimination and Harassment.

The purpose of this policy is to further the University’s goals of addressing sexual harassment and providing resources to those impacted by such incidents. The policy will describe the manner in which CSU responds to reports of sexual harassment and the procedures and options for reporting policy violations.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS USED IN THIS POLICY

Consent: Consent is defined in Colorado Revised Statutes § 18-3-401 as “cooperation in act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will and with knowledge of the nature of the act… Submission under the influence of fear shall not constitute consent.” Under this policy, consent must be knowing, voluntary, active, present and ongoing. Consent is described in more detail in Section 5 below.

Formal complaint: A document filed by an Impacted Party or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a Responding Party and requesting that the University investigate the allegation of sexual harassment.

Impacted Party (referred to in federal regulations as the “Complainant”): An individual who reports being the subject or target of sexual harassment as prohibited by this policy.

Official with Authority: Officials with authority to initiate corrective action, including disciplinary sanctions, when a report of sexual harassment is received are the University’s Title IX Coordinator, the President, the Provost, all Vice Presidents, Vice Provosts, Dean of Students, Associate Dean of Students, Director of the Student Resolution Center, Director of the Office of Equal Opportunity, Executive Director of Human Resources/Chief Human Resource Officer, and Director of Athletics.

Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Impacted Party.

Responding Party (referred to in federal regulations as a “Respondent”): An individual who is alleged to be responsible for an incident(s) of sexual harassment.

Responsible Employee: Any CSU employee who has the responsibility to report to the Office of Title IX Programs and Gender Equity any incident of sexual harassment of which they become aware. At CSU, this includes:

- An academic or activity advisor such as a faculty advisor, student success coordinator, internship coordinator, advisor to a student organization or club; however, faculty members are not considered responsible employees in the ordinary course of classroom or online instruction
- All coaches, trainers, and other athletic staff that interact directly with students, including club sports
- All student affairs employees whose duties require them to have regular or daily contact with students. This includes employees who are responsible for directly providing services to undergraduate and graduate students and to student organizations
- All employees of the CSU Police Department
- Employees whose job duties require that they regularly interface with students
- All supervisors of employees, including student employees
A senior administrator (president, provost and executive vice president, vice provost, associate and assistant provost, dean or associate dean, vice president, associate or assistant vice president, director of athletics, senior associate director of athletics, department head/chair, executive director, director, associate or assistant director)

Student employees assigned responsibilities for campus safety or when acting as mentors

Retaliation is any action, performed directly or through others, that is intended to deter a reasonable person from engaging in a protected activity or is done in retribution for engaging in a protected activity. Retaliation includes any attempt to intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege under the Title IX law and regulations or this policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing. The University strictly prohibits retaliation. Depending on the behaviors, examples of actions that could constitute retaliation when done in retribution for engaging in a protected activity include, but are not limited to:

- Reducing a person’s salary or work hours
- Giving a negative performance evaluation
- Making adverse decisions relating to one’s work assignments, vacation, or promotion or advancement opportunities (whether employment-related or academic)
- Reducing a student’s grade
- Removing a person from a student organization, academic program, or lab
- Interfering with one’s job search
- Engaging in harassing conduct that is sufficiently severe, pervasive, and/or persistent to create a hostile environment; for this purpose, the existence of a hostile environment is to be judged both objectively (meaning a reasonable person would find the environment hostile) and subjectively (meaning the affected individual felt the environment was hostile) or
- Making threats to engage in any of the actions listed above.

Sexual harassment is defined under Title IX regulations as conduct on the basis of sex that constitutes one or more of the following:

1. An employee of the University conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the University on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (“quid pro quo” sexual harassment); or
2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the University’s education program or activity. Depending upon the behaviors, examples of such conduct may include, but are not limited to:
   - Gender-based bullying, including towards trans and non-binary people
   - Direct propositions of a sexual nature
   - Pressure for sexual activity
   - A pattern of conduct that includes one or more of the following: (1) unwelcome and unnecessary touching, patting, hugging, or brushing against a person’s body;
(2) remarks of a sexual nature about a person’s clothing or body, whether or not intended to be complimentary; (3) remarks about sexual activity or speculations about previous sexual experience; (4) other comments of a sexual nature, including sexually explicit statements, questions, jokes or anecdotes; or (5) written or digital communications such as emails, texts, live or streaming audio or video, social media posts, etc. containing sexual comments, words or images

- Visual displays of sexually oriented images outside the educational context

   a. Sexual Assault is defined as:
      i. Non-Consensual Sexual Penetration (Rape): the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim. The gender of the victim is irrelevant.

      ii. Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (Groping/Fondling): is the touching of the private body parts of another person without the consent of the person, including instances where the person is incapable of giving consent because of their age or temporary or permanent mental incapacity. This type of sexual assault also includes making a person touch themselves or another with, or on, any intimate body parts. It can occur whether those involved are clothed or unclothed.

      iii. Incest: Non-forcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other as an ancestor or descendant, including a natural child, child by adoption, or stepchild twenty-one years of age or older, a brother or sister of the whole or half blood, or an uncle, aunt, nephew, or niece of the whole blood.

      iv. Statutory Rape: Sexual penetration with an individual who is below the legal age of consent according to Colorado law. The general age of consent in Colorado is 17. However, the ages of both parties, as well as their marital status, are considered when determining whether the sexual contact is unlawful. For a more detailed definition of the age of consent, see C.R.S. § 18-3-402 and this article released by the Colorado General Assembly.
   b. Dating violence means violence or the threat of violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim (referred to in this policy as the Impacted Party). The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the following factors:
      i. The length of the relationship
      ii. The type of relationship
      iii. The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship
c. Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim (Impacted Party) under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction (i.e., Colorado or other place where the conduct occurs), or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the laws of the jurisdiction.

In Colorado, “domestic violence” means an act or threatened act of violence upon a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship. “Domestic violence” also includes any other crime against a person, or against property, including an animal, or any municipal ordinance violation against a person, or against property, including an animal, when used as a method of coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge directed against a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship. C.R.S. § 18-6-800.3.

d. Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of this definition:

Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property.

Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Examples of stalking behavior include, but are not limited to:

- Non-consensual communication, including face-to-face communication, telephone calls, voice messages, e-mails, texts, letters, notes, gifts, or any other communications that are undesired and place another person in fear
- Surveillance or other types of observation, including staring or “peeping”
- Pursuing, following, waiting, or showing up uninvited at or near a residence, workplace, classroom, or other places frequented by the victim
- Defamation (disseminating false information to others about another)
- Gathering information, or asking others to gather information about an individual from friends, family, or co-workers
- Threats to harm self or others
- Vandalizing a person’s property
- Cyber-stalking--the repeated use of electronic communication to harass or frighten someone through use of online, electronic, or digital technologies, such as:
Unauthorized posting of pictures, messages, and/or information about the Impacted Party on websites, internet sites, social networking sites, mobile apps (e.g., Snapchat, Instagram, etc.), bulletin boards and/or chat rooms
- Creating a website about the victim
- Sending unwanted/unsolicited email, texts, talk, or communication requests (e.g., Facebook friend requests)
- Posting private or public messages on Internet sites, social networking sites, and/or bulletin boards
- Using Global Positioning Systems (GPS) to monitor a victim
- Installing surveillance equipment, hardware, or software (e.g., spyware, cameras) on a victim's computer or other device
- Catfishing: falsifying your identity in order to gain access to or trust of another person or trick someone into a relationship

4. Sexual exploitation of another that is unwelcome and is so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the university’s education programs or activities. Some examples of sexual exploitation include:
   a. Prostituting another person, coercing sex work or trafficking persons for sex
   b. Voyeurism (secretly viewing the sexual activities or nudity of others)
   c. Exhibitionism (compulsive display of one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances; masturbation in front of others; flashing someone with a sexual or other intimate body part)
   d. Non-consensual photographing or videotaping another individual’s personal body parts (clothed or unclothed)
   e. Non-consensual video or audio recording of sexual activity
   f. Non-consensual possession, sharing, or streaming of images, photography, video, or audio recording of sexual activity or nudity, or distribution of such without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved
   g. Allowing a third-party to observe consensual sexual activity without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved h. Knowingly having sexual contact with a person who is not aware that you have a sexually transmitted disease, or HIV
   i. Inducing incapacitation to make another person vulnerable to non-consensual sexual activity and/or to make another person expose their genitals

Title IX Coordinator means the CSU Vice President for Equity, Equal Opportunity and Title IX (Vice President) or any person appointed by the Vice President to serve as Title IX Coordinator. The Vice President may also appoint Deputy Title IX Coordinators at any time. The names and contact information for each of these individuals are available on the Title IX web page.

SECTION 3. PARTIES, JURISDICTION & APPLICABILITY

2. The Parties

The Parties to a formal complaint and related proceedings are the Impacted Party and the Responding Party. This Policy and the related Procedures apply equally to both Parties, although different supportive and interim measures, remedies and sanctions may be implemented as appropriate. There may be more than one Impacted Party and/or more than one Responding Party named in a formal complaint.

An Impacted Party may bring a formal complaint when participating in, or attempting to participate in, a University education program or activity at the time of filing the formal complaint.

In some circumstances when the Impacted Party has not filed a formal complaint or is not participating in the grievance process, Title IX may nevertheless require the University to initiate an investigation and adjudication of sexual harassment allegations in order to protect the University community. In such instances, the Title IX Coordinator will sign the complaint. The Title IX Coordinator may consider a variety of factors, including a pattern of alleged misconduct by a particular Responding Party, in deciding whether to sign a formal complaint. The Title IX Coordinator may take circumstances into account such as whether the information or allegations involved violence, use of weapons, or other such factors.

Pursuant to C.R.S. § 13-25-138, the TIX coordinator may NOT consider an Impacted Party’s previous sexual history except for prior or subsequent sexual conduct with the Responding Party, or physical evidence such as the source or origin of semen to show that the act or acts were or were not committed by the Responding Party.

3. Applicability
   1. Members of the University Community

      All University community members are prohibited from engaging in or assisting another’s engagement in conduct that would violate this policy. This includes, without limitation, all students, faculty, staff, other employees and volunteers.

   2. Non-Members of the University Community

      When the person accused of sexual harassment is not a member of the University community and the University has no authority to impose disciplinary sanctions against that person if found responsible, the University may dismiss the formal complaint while still providing supportive measures to the Impacted Party. For more information on supportive and interim measures, see the procedures described in Section 11 below.

      Employees and agents of contractors, visitors to the University, donors, alumni and others over whom the University does not have authority to take corrective or disciplinary action are also expected to comply with this policy when doing business with the University. The University may, among other actions, terminate its contract and relationship with the individual or entity, exclude such persons from campus, and/or refer the matter to law enforcement.

4. Relationship of the Behavior to the University’s Programs and Activities

   Behavior is subject to this policy when:
      o The behavior occurs on university property, including property owned or controlled by a recognized student organization such as a fraternity or sorority;
The behavior occurs off university property in the context of university employment or any university education program or activity, including, but not limited to, university-sponsored academic, athletic, alumni, fundraising, public relations, extracurricular, study abroad, research, on-line or internship programs or activities; or

- The behavior occurs off university property and outside the context of a university employment or education program or activity but has a continuing adverse effect on students, employees, or third parties in any university employment, living or education program or activity.

- Cyber Harassment: As used above, “university employment or education program or activity” includes behavior conducted electronically, such as in an online class or through digital communication.

SECTION 4. FALSE STATEMENTS

It is prohibited to knowingly make a materially false statement in bad faith during the grievance process. The outcome of the case alone cannot be the basis for concluding that a party made a bad-faith materially false statement.

SECTION 5. CONSENT

It is the responsibility of every individual to ensure they have the consent of others to engage in sexual activity. Communication regarding consent consists of mutually understandable words or actions that indicate an unambiguous willingness to engage in specific sexual activity at the same time, in the same way. In the absence of clear communication or outward demonstration, there is no consent. Lack of protest, lack of resistance, or silence do not alone constitute consent.

Consent must be all of the following:

- Knowing: All individuals understand, are aware of, and agree as to the “who” (same partners), “what” (same acts), “where” (same location), “when” (same time), and “how” (the same way and under the same conditions) of the sexual activity.

- Active: Consent must take the form of “clearly understandable words or actions” that reveal one’s expectations and agreement to engage in specific sexual activity. This means that silence, passivity, submission, or the lack of verbal or physical resistance (including the lack of a “no”) should not – in and of themselves – be understood as consent. Consent cannot be inferred by an individual’s manner of dress, the giving or acceptance of gifts, the extension or acceptance of an invitation to go to a private room or location, or on a date.

- Voluntary: Consent must be freely given and cannot be the result of respondent’s intimidation (extortion, menacing behavior, bullying), coercion (severe or persistent pressure causing fear of significant consequences from respondent if one does not engage in sexual activity), force (violence, physical restraint, or the presence of a weapon), threats (indications of intent to harm, whether direct or indirect), or fraud (misrepresentation or material omission about oneself or the present situation in order to gain permission for sexual or intimate activity).

- Present and Ongoing: Consent must exist at the time of the sexual activity. Consent to previous sexual activity does not imply consent to later sexual acts; similarly, consent to one type of sexual activity does not imply consent to other sexual acts. Consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not constitute consent to engage in sexual activity with another person.

Consent may also be withdrawn at any time, for any reason, provided the person withdrawing consent makes that known in clearly understandable words or actions. Thus, even if a person agreed to a sexual interaction or continued sexual interaction, that person has the right to change their mind, at any time, irrespective of how much sexual interaction may have already taken place.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity does not imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity. The existence of a dating relationship or past sexual relations between the individuals involved is not conclusive evidence of consent in another instance (nor will subsequent sexual relations or dating relationship alone suffice as evidence of previous consent).

Force and Coercion

Consent obtained through force or coercion is not valid consent. Force is the threat or use of violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access.

Coercion is pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure exerted to obtain consent. When someone has not indicated clearly that they want to engage in sexual activity or, indicates that they want to stop or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point is coercive. Coercion occurs when a person exerts power or influence over another in order to gain consent to engage in sexual activity.

Coercion can happen one time in the moment and/or over a length of time. A person can coerce someone into an act with them or into a sexual act with others.

Resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent; however, there is no requirement that a party resist a sexual advance or request. Physical trauma is not required to investigate accusations of non-consensual sex.

5. Incapacitation

Incapacitation is a state where a person cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the physical or mental capacity to give knowing consent (i.e., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why and how” of their sexual interaction).

Because alcohol or other drug use can place an individual’s capacity to consent into question, sober sex is less likely to raise such questions. When alcohol or other drugs, including those that incapacitate (such as Rohypnol, Ketamine, GHB, etc.), are involved, a person will be considered unable to give consent if they cannot fully understand the details of a sexual interaction because they lack the capacity to reasonably understand the situation. Administering a drug that incapacitates another individual is a violation of this policy. More information on these drugs can be found at www.911rape.org.
This policy also prohibits sexual activity with a person whose incapacity results from mental or physical disabilities, sleep, unconsciousness, or involuntary physical restraint.

Consent is not obtained when:

- The Responding Party’s belief in affirmative consent arose from their own intoxication or recklessness; or
- The Responding Party did not take steps under the circumstances to determine whether the Impacted Party consented to sexual activity.

6. Consensual Relationships Involving CSU Employees

The University has a policy defining Consensual Relationships and providing procedures to be followed when such relationships arise between students and faculty or other employees, or between employees. When the policy on Consensual Relationships is violated, a violation of this policy may also result.

SECTION 6. THE ROLE OF THE TITLE IX COORDINATOR

CSU has appointed a Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title IX Coordinators to oversee and coordinate its compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq. (Title IX) and its implementing regulations, 34 C.F.R. Part 106. Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities by recipients of federal financial assistance, of which CSU is one.

D. Title IX Coordinator

The University’s Title IX Coordinator oversees the University’s compliance with Title IX, including its policy, procedures, education and prevention efforts, and coordinates training for members of the CSU community. The Title IX Coordinator also oversees and monitors Title IX investigators and reviews information about sexual harassment and gender-based discrimination occurring in the University community in order to identify and address systemic problems. In so doing, the Title IX Coordinator provides appropriate resources and supportive and interim measures to those involved in a complaint or investigation.

The Title IX Coordinator is available to meet with any member of the University community or campus organization that would like to make a report involving matters of sexual harassment and gender-based discrimination, discuss reporting options, and to answer questions about the University’s Title IX compliance, efforts, policy and procedures.

The Title IX Coordinator has overall responsibility for the effective implementation of remedies offered to the Parties to assure equal access to educational programs and activities.

7. Deputy Title IX Coordinators

Deputy Title IX Coordinators provide support for the University and the CSU community on Title IX-related matters and concerns and answer questions about Title IX policy, procedures and resources.
Contact information for the Title IX Coordinator and Deputy Title Coordinators is found below under How to Report.

SECTION 7. DUTY TO REPORT & REPORTING OPTIONS
Anyone who has witnessed, suspects, or is aware of any incident involving conduct prohibited by this policy is strongly encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Title IX Coordinator (see How to Report, below).

A “Responsible Employee” is defined above in this policy. Responsible Employees have special responsibilities with respect to reporting incidents of sexual harassment. All Responsible Employees must report incidents of sexual harassment to the Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours after becoming aware of the incident (see How to Report, below). It does not matter whether the person alleged to have engaged in sexual harassment is a member of the University community, or not; the Responsible Employee’s duty is to report all incidents. Failure to report sexual harassment may subject a Responsible Employee to corrective or disciplinary action.

3. Privacy and Sharing of Information
The University will protect the identity of persons involved in reports of sexual harassment to the best of its ability. The University will only share personally identifiable information with those who have a legitimate need to know in order for the University to investigate and respond or to deliver resources or support services. The University does not publish the names or post identifiable information about persons involved in a report of sexual harassment in the CSU Police Department’s Daily Crime Log or elsewhere online. However, the University cannot promise complete confidentiality or privacy in the handling of sexual harassment reports. For those seeking completely confidential services and support, see Confidential Support Options below.

8. How to Report
When an emergency exists such as a person needing immediate medical attention or a crime or threat is in progress, call 911 from any phone and provide the dispatcher with your location.

Consistent with Section 7.A above, anyone may report an incident of sexual harassment to the Office of Title IX Programs and Gender Equity as follows:

Reports may also be made online on the Student Conduct Services website under Create an Incident Report.

The University will not impose discipline on a party or witness for other policy violations related to the incident such as possession or consumption of alcohol or drugs. However, participation in an investigation, hearing or appeal does not shield any person from disciplinary action for sexual harassment or sexual misconduct, whether or not such behavior is related to the allegations in the formal complaint.

SECTION 9. FIRST AMENDMENT
As a public institution of higher education, Colorado State University is required to follow the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which broadly protects speech and expression from governmental interference. Depending on the circumstances, certain speech or expression may be protected by the First Amendment and, therefore, will not be actionable under this Policy.

SECTION 10. CLERY ACT CRIME REPORTING BY THE UNIVERSITY
Actions or conduct that occur in geographical locations defined under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (“Clery Act”) and that constitute crimes defined under the Clery Act will be reported without personally identifying information by CSU to the U.S. Department of Education to be included within the annual crime statistics reported by the University to students, employees, prospective students and employees, parents of students and prospective students, and the public.

SECTION 11. PROCEDURES
CSU has adopted procedures for investigating and responding to complaints of sexual harassment under Title IX laws and regulations (“Procedures”) to implement this policy and to provide for prompt and equitable investigations, hearings and appeals of complaints of sexual harassment and gender-based discrimination that fall under the Title IX laws and regulations.

CSU will treat all those involved in a proceeding pursuant to this policy fairly and equitably. Differences between one party’s rights and options and another party’s rights and options will never be based on sex. When a report of sexual harassment is received, the University will offer such supportive measures to the Impacted Party as are appropriate to the circumstances and will not impose disciplinary sanctions on the Responding Party except as warranted after following fair and equitable procedures.

Sexual misconduct that does not fall within the definition of sexual harassment under the Title IX regulations is subject to different procedures than those for Title IX matters. Students alleged to have committed such violations are subject to the provisions in the Student Conduct Code. Employees alleged to have committed such violations are subject to the CSU Policy on Discrimination and Harassment.

SECTION 12. COMPLIANCE WITH THIS POLICY
Compliance with this policy is required of every member of the University community. When an individual is found to have violated this policy, consequences will result.
1. Students: Disciplinary sanctions may be imposed pursuant to the Student Conduct Code, up to and including expulsion from CSU. Disciplinary sanctions may include but are not limited to:

- Disciplinary standings:
  - Disciplinary probation
  - Loss of good standing
  - Disciplinary suspension
  - Deferred disciplinary suspension
  - Disciplinary expulsion
  - Loss of student organization recognition

APPENDIX 2: DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

SECTION 1. POLICY STATEMENT

Colorado State University (CSU) is a land-grant institution committed to offering access in its educational, scholarly and outreach activities to all individuals representative of our multicultural society and providing an environment of excellence in which all individuals can participate to the full level of their capabilities, realize their aspirations and contribute to the global society in which we live. In this pursuit, the University is committed to providing an environment that respects the dignity and worth of every member of its community and strives to create and maintain a work and study environment that is equitable, inclusive, and responsible so that each member of the University community is treated with dignity and respect and is rewarded for relevant considerations such as ability and performance. As a means of achieving these goals and to prevent harm arising from discrimination and harassment, the University prohibits discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment and retaliation, as defined in this policy, by or against any member of or visitor to CSU.

Colorado State University is committed to providing an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment based on race, age, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or pregnancy and will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. Such an environment is necessary to a healthy learning, working, and living atmosphere because discrimination and harassment undermine human dignity and the positive connections among all people at our university. Acts of discrimination and harassment will be addressed consistent with this policy.

Consistent with state and federal law, reasonable accommodation will be provided to persons with disabilities.

Discrimination and harassment are very serious matters that can have far-reaching, current and future impact on the lives, educational experience, and careers of individuals. Intentionally false accusations can have a similar impact. Discrimination and harassment are strictly prohibited by the University and will not be tolerated. An individual who impermissibly discriminates against another, or an individual who knowingly and intentionally files a complaint under this policy containing false statements or information, is subject to university discipline.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS USED IN THIS POLICY

For the purposes of determining whether a particular course of conduct constitutes discrimination or harassment under this policy, the following definitions will be used:

Complainant: The person who reports or is reported by another person as having been subjected to acts potentially constituting discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or retaliation by another.

Discrimination is conduct that is based upon an individual’s race, age, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or pregnancy that (a) excludes an individual from participation in, (b) denies the individual the benefits of, (c) treats the individual differently from others in, or (d) otherwise adversely affects a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education, living environment or university program or activity. It is unlawful discrimination for an employer to refuse to hire, to discharge, to promote or demote, to harass during the course of employment, or to discriminate in matters of compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment against any person otherwise qualified because of any of the listed protected identities. Consistent with state and federal law, this includes failing to provide reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities or to accommodate religious practices.

Harassment is a form of discrimination and is conduct based upon an individual’s race, age, creed, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or pregnancy that is unwelcome and sufficiently severe or pervasive enough to create a work environment that a reasonable person would consider intimidating, hostile, or offensive, or that substantially interferes with an individual's work or education. Intent is irrelevant in the determination of prohibited harassment. Depending upon the facts, harassment could include, but is not limited to threats, physical contact or violence, pranks, jokes, bullying, epithets, derogatory comments, or vandalism.

Even if actions are not directed at specific persons, a hostile environment may be created when the conduct is sufficiently severe or pervasive so as to substantially interfere with or limit the ability of an individual in the environment to work, study, or otherwise participate in activities of the University.

Conduct alleged to be harassment, including sexual harassment (defined below), will be evaluated by considering the totality of the particular circumstances, including the nature, frequency, intensity, location, context, and duration of the conduct. Although repeated incidents generally create a stronger claim of harassment, a serious incident, even if isolated, can be sufficient.

Sexual Harassment* is any unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, or other conduct of a sexual nature when:
1. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment, education or participation in a university activity;

2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for, or a factor in, decisions affecting that individual’s employment, education or participation in a university activity; or

3. Such conduct is sufficiently severe or pervasive to unreasonably interfere with an individual’s employment or academic performance or create an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment for that person’s employment, education or participation in a university activity.

Depending upon the facts, examples of sexual harassment could include, but are not limited to: unwelcome sexual advances; repeated and unwelcome sexually-oriented bullying, teasing, joking, or flirting; verbal abuse of a sexual nature; commentary about an individual's body, sexual prowess, or sexual deficiencies; leering, touching, pinching, or brushing against another's body; or displaying objects or pictures, including electronic images, which are sexual in nature and which create a hostile or offensive work, education, or living environment.

The fact that a consensual relationship exists, in and of itself, is not a defense to a charge of sexual harassment. Conduct may occur within a consensual relationship or following termination of a consensual relationship that is unwelcome and meets the definition of sexual harassment under this policy or as defined by the University’s Title IX policy. *

The University’s Consensual Relationship Policy prohibits faculty from entering into new consensual relationships with a student over whom they have any evaluative authority. The asymmetry of the faculty-student relationship means that any sexual relationship between a faculty member and a student is potentially exploitative. In the event of a charge of sexual harassment, the University will in general be unsympathetic to a defense based upon consent when the facts establish that a professional faculty-student, staff-student, or supervisor-employee power differential existed within the relationship.

*For the definition of sexual harassment pursuant to Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, see the CSU Policy on Sexual Harassment. Sexual harassment is prohibited by both Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, and by both this policy and the CSU Policy on Title IX Sexual Harassment. The Office of Equal Opportunity will explain the applicability of these laws and policies to parties involved in a complaint and grievance procedure involving sexual harassment.

Respondent: The person reported to have engaged in one or more acts that may constitute a violation of this policy, including discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, or retaliation.

Retaliation is any materially adverse action taken against an individual or someone associated with that individual because they have participated or may participate in a protected activity, such as making a complaint or report; serving as a witness; assisting in an investigation, grievance procedure, hearing, or related activity concerning an unlawful practice or violation of university policy; or opposing a discriminatory practice. Action is generally deemed retaliatory if it would deter a reasonable person in the same circumstances from opposing practices prohibited by this policy or participating in the complaint processes under this policy. For there to be retaliation, there must be a causal connection between the protected activity and the materially adverse action. The University strictly prohibits retaliation. Depending upon the facts, examples of conduct that may be retaliation may include, but are not limited to demotion, denial of raise, termination, threats, harassment, and intimidation.

Third-Party Harassment is harassment committed by an individual or persons not employed by or enrolled as students at the University such as a vendor, contractor, guest lecturer or other visitor to campus.

SECTION 3. JURISDICTION & APPLICABILITY

All University community members are prohibited from engaging in or assisting another’s engagement in conduct prohibited by this policy. This includes, without limitation, students, employees (including faculty), affiliates, volunteers, visitors, and (where provided by law or contract) agents, contractors, subcontractors, and grantees of the University. The University’s disciplinary response may be limited if the conduct is by a visitor or other third-party not subject to the University’s jurisdiction. When alleged discrimination or harassment is by an individual or external entity (for example, an individual employed by an outside contractor, program provider, or internship provider) doing business with the University and it reasonably appears that a violation has occurred, the matter will be referred to the appropriate official or department for further action, which may include termination of the contract or relationship.

This policy applies to alleged discrimination or harassment that takes place on university property or at university-sponsored events, regardless of their location. This policy may also apply to alleged discrimination or harassment that occurs off university property and outside the context of a university employment or education program or activity but nevertheless has a continuing adverse impact on or creates a hostile environment for students, employees, or third parties in any university employment, living or academic environment. Depending upon the facts, examples of where such conduct may occur include, but are not limited to, study abroad programs, conferences, social gatherings and virtual spaces.

SECTION 4. FIRST AMENDMENT

As a public institution of higher education, Colorado State University is required to follow the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which broadly protects speech and expression from governmental interference. Depending on the facts, certain speech or expression may be protected by the First Amendment and, therefore, will not be actionable under this Policy.

SECTION 5. CONFIDENTIALITY

The University recognizes the importance of confidentiality and privacy. Although the confidentiality of the information received and the privacy of the individuals involved cannot be guaranteed, they will be protected to the extent feasible and as permitted by law. Information received in connection with the reporting, investigation, and resolution of allegations will be treated as confidential and will only involve individuals whom the University determines are necessary to conduct an appropriate investigation, to provide assistance and resources to parties, to perform other appropriate university functions, or when the University is required to provide information under the law.

The expressed request of the complainant not to proceed with a complaint or investigation will be considered in the context of the University's legal obligation to act upon the allegations and the right of the responding party to be informed concerning the charge(s). The University will evaluate the request to determine whether the University can honor the request while still providing a safe and nondiscriminatory environment. A decision to proceed despite a complainant’s request not to will be made on a case-by-case basis after an individualized review, and the complainant will be notified of the decision to proceed.

All individuals involved in the process should observe the same standard of discretion and respect for everyone involved in the process.

SECTION 6. REPORTING DISCRIMINATION OR HARASSMENT

Any university community member or individual who is directly involved in, observes, or reasonably believes that discrimination or harassment may have occurred can submit a report to the Office of Equal Opportunity.

SECTION 7. PROCEDURES
CSU has procedures addressing complaints of discrimination and harassment (“Procedures”) to implement this policy and to provide for prompt and equitable informal resolutions, investigations, hearings and appeals for complaints of discrimination, harassment and sexual harassment. An individual may file a complaint addressing an instance or a pattern of instances if the last instance took place within the last 120 calendar days.

Colorado State University will employ the preponderance of the evidence standard.

SECTION 8. COMPLIANCE WITH THIS POLICY
Compliance with this policy is required of every member of the University community and all others who are subject to it. When an individual is found to have violated this policy, consequences will result, up to and including dismissal from CSU in accordance with the applicable procedures. Any disciplinary action for a tenured faculty member must follow the procedures outlined in Section E.15, Disciplinary Action for Tenured Faculty, of the Faculty and Administrative Professional Manual.

SECTION 9. AFFIRMATIVE ACTION
The University, as a federal contractor, takes affirmative action to employ qualified women, racialized minorities, veterans, and individuals with disabilities. For information on this Affirmative Action commitment and program, contact the Office of Equal Opportunity at oeo@colostate.edu or (970) 491-5836.

SECTION 10. FILING WITH EXTERNAL AGENCIES
Persons who believe that they have been subjected to discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, retaliation may be able to file a complaint with the Colorado Civil Rights Division, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the U.S. Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights or the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs. Information regarding filing charges with any of these agencies may be obtained from the Office of Equal Opportunity.

APPENDIX 4: CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS

APPENDIX 5: FAMILIAL RELATIONSHIPS

APPENDIX 6: BULLYING IN THE WORKPLACE

APPENDIX 7: RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

APPENDIX 8: FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE POLICY

Rationale: Changes to federal regulations have required changes to CSU’s policy on sexual harassment. The old policy is included in the Manual as part of Appendix 1. The required changes make it necessary to split off the policy on sexual harassment from the policy on discrimination and other types of harassment. Thus, Appendix 1 needs to be split into two separate appendices, and this requires renumbering the other appendices. The current order of the appendices came from when each one was created. As long as they need to be renumbered, it makes sense to place them in a more logical order.

Since the policies for the new Appendix 1 and Appendix 2 are university policies, rather than just policies for faculty and/or administrative professionals, then Faculty Council can only vote yes or no on whether to include them in the Manual as appendices. However, both the Chair of Faculty Council and the Chair of CoRSAF were involved in the writing of these policies (as representatives of Faculty Council). Much of the language is mandated by federal regulations.
Board of Governors – Faculty Council Representative Report – CSU-Fort Collins

Faculty Council Meeting September 1, 2020
Respectfully submitted by Stephanie Clemons, Ph.D.

Board of Governors (BOG) Meeting (virtual) August 6-7, 2020 Executive Summary

The Board of Governors’ (BOG) meeting held on Thursday, August 6th was focused on the candidate interviews for their CSU Global Presidential Search. On Friday, August 7th the meeting began with a report from the Audit and Finance Committee. It outlined the FY 2020-2021 Audit Plan as well as the Covid-19 and State Budget Update. An announcement was made that the Shepardson Building remodel at CSU-FC will be moving forward with the passing of Senate Bill 2019.

Campus budget presentations were offered by respective campus presidents and their CFOs. The budgets reflect a possible 10% and 20% reduction in state funding. Two scenarios – 0% and 3% -- were also presented regarding a possible student tuition increase. There has been no tuition increase in the last two years. However, the BOG is not excited about raising costs for students. The 3% increase equals about $1.34/day for a 16-week semester. A decrease in enrollment was factored into budgets and identified expenses included a significant increase in insurance costs, newly filled positions (e.g. new dean, VP Engagement, Provost), and prior commitments related to research, student success and public safety. The motion for the Annual Approval of Institutional Plan for Student Fees was approved.

Public comments – none received.

CSU System Highlights and Chancellor’s Report. The CSU System office has completed the move to their new location at 555 17th Street. Dr. Rick Miranda was welcomed to his new role as Chief Academic Officer of CSU System and Dr. Becky Takeda-Tinker to her new role as Chief Educational Innovation Officer. The System’s new website was rolled out in June. Chancellor Frank continues to engage with City of Fort Collins leadership around redevelopment of the Hughes Stadium property. The System continues to work in partnership with the campuses to navigate the requirements of CARES Act (Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security) funding. Six of the 24 Latin American Education Foundation scholars in Colorado are coming to CSU this fall, representing the largest number of scholars of any school. CSU Spur announced the eight artists for its large-scale art collection on the campus including four artists from Colorado; three from other locations in the U.S. and one artist from London.

CSU-Fort Collins Highlights. After consideration, no program reviews will take place during academic years 2020-2021. The Tenure and Promotion report revealed that in 2020, 83 candidates were tenured, promoted or both. The total tenure-track faculty numbers rose slighting this past year (1.7%). Our number of female faculty continued to rise, as did our number of international faculty; both are at historic highs. NTTF advancement in rank report indicated 48 candidates were promoted to various positions including senior instructor, master instructor, teaching associate professors, and associate professors. Plans have recently been finalized for a three-year phased in approach to increasing the non-tenure-track faculty salary floor. Using AAUP data, CSU faculty salaries and total compensation lag behind our peers. Overall, the CSU average faculty salary is at 91% (up from last year); total compensation is higher at around 95%. Almost 8,000 degrees were conferred at CSU-FC; 5500 were bachelor’s degrees.
CSU- Global Highlights. President Becky Takeda-Tinker reported a 12.7% enrollment drop spring semester due to pandemic. Marketing was adjusted to attract new students. A 9% overall increase in enrollment is projected; 10,500 new students with 85% retention rate. As of this meeting, they were at 108% of their goal; 96% active students, 99% new students. After expenses, total increase is projected at $3.1 million.

CSU- Pueblo Highlights. President Tim Mottet reported a revenue increase for summer 2020 when compared to summer 2019. Additional revenue is also projected as they become the first solar-powered university in the state https://www.chieftain.com/news/20200207/csu-pueblo-will-be-first-solar-powered-university. Five new undergraduate certificates were approved.

Academic and Student Affairs Committee. Approval of Consent Agenda items included new music therapy Ph.D. and changes to Faculty Council Manual at CSU-FC. Motion: approval of degree candidates and conferral of degrees to CSU-FC, CSU-Global and CSU-Pueblo. This is an annual action item. Motion passed.

Special Reports received from Paul Plinske, Athletic Director, CSU-Pueblo and Joe Parker, CSU-FC.

Other Standing Committee Reports received from Real Estate/Facilities Committee and Evaluation Committee.

Next BOG Meeting: October 8-9, 2020 at CSU-Fort Collins.

October 2019—Faculty Council Resolution on Budget Priorities

Faculty Council Resolution on Budget Priorities

(1) WHEREAS instructional spending per student at CSU has remained flat, after accounting for inflation, since 2009;

(2) WHEREAS athletic subsidies have almost doubled during this same period, amounting to $25.4 million in FY18;

(3) WHEREAS $5.9 million of these subsidies came from student athletic fees that raised the cost of attendance;

(4) WHEREAS Faculty Council believes that more resources should be devoted to CSU’s primary academic mission without increasing tuition and fees;

(5) BE IT RESOLVED that Faculty Council urges the CSU administration to significantly reduce athletic program subsidies, and to use the savings to support the university’s primary academic mission.

ENDNOTES 1. Budgetary subsidies are provided by the university to the athletic program to offset athletic program budget deficits. Athletic program budget data from NCAA financial reports, available at https://sports.usatoday.com/ncaa/finances/. The FY18 subsidy is reduced by a $0.5 million transfer from athletics back to the general fund

May 2020—Faculty Council Resolution to Support Student Demands for Equity and to Share Action and Accountability:

Resolution to Support Student Demands for Equity and to Share Action and Accountability

Whereas, over the last five years, various students groups have called for actions on campus to promote well-being and learning at CSU;

Whereas, incidents have occurred that reflected bias, insensitivity, and disruptive behaviors, which have not been satisfactorily resolved;

Whereas, the Principles of Community have been adopted (2016) to guide CSU as a community of ‘WE’ characterized by inclusion, integrity, respect, service, and social justice;
Whereas, dialogue and learning depend on the ‘WE’ listening to each other, explaining what we know, and admitting what we don’t know;

Whereas, CSU has codes and policies that identify rights and responsibilities to guide actions and behaviors and related processes for review, to complain and to grieve (these include, but are not limited to, disruptive behavior, discrimination, harassment, bullying) within the context of state and federal laws

Be it resolved that Faculty Council:

Acknowledges students’ concerns;

Challenges the status quo and supports proactive efforts and accountability for continual improvements of the climate at CSU for all;

Calls upon our faculty peers to seek opportunities to learn of and lessen barriers to our and students’ learning and well-being;

Collaborates with students, staff, and administrators to assure the Principles of Community become universally integrated into the ‘what’ and ‘who’ we are as CSU’s community now and into the future

Assures that its annual reporting (Faculty Council and its committees) communicates progress and actions consistent with the Principles of Community and improvement of CSU’s climate for all.

Committee on Faculty Governance (CoFG) Annual Report 2019-2020

Members for 2019-2020:

Agricultural Sciences: Ruth Hufbauer, Vice Chair
Health and Human Sciences: Scott Shuler
Business: Leo Vijayasarathy
Engineering: Steven Reising, Chair
Liberal Arts: Emily Moore
Natural Resources: Troy Ocheltree
Natural Sciences: Don Estep

The committee met in person or online on the following dates: 1/28/20, 2/11/20, 3/3/20, 3/31/20 and 4/28/20. All meetings were in person except for 3/31/20 and 4/28/20, which were held online on Teams. All CoNTTF Members were invited to the 3/31/20 meeting to discuss their proposed motions for changes to the Code. The committee chair met with the CorSAF Chair and the Faculty Council Chair multiple times. The committee conducted significant business through e-mail discussions.

Code changes to the following sections were considered by CoFG:

- Changes to Section C.2.1.3.1 of the Code to eliminate ambiguity in the Code and maintain approximately equal proportional representation in the number of representatives on Faculty Council to the number of faculty members in each College and the Libraries were passed by CoFG and presented to Faculty Council by Steven Reising on May 5, 2020. The proposed changes were accepted by Faculty Council with well over 2/3 majority.
- Changes to Section C.2.1.3.1 of the Code proposed by CoNTTF to enhance the voice of NTTF in shared governance were considered and discussed at several committee meetings, including during the CoFG meeting with CoNTTF members on 3/31/20. The committee’s consensus is that NTTF need to have a stronger voice in shared governance. However, the means and method to achieve that vision and goal need to be discussed among Departments, Colleges and the Libraries across the campus to determine the best way CoFG took the following actions regarding elections:

- Conducted elections for departmental and at-large representatives to Faculty Council.
- Conducted elections for members of Executive Committee.
- Made nominations for Faculty Council officers.

FCCIA met during the school year 2019-2020 four times, including meeting on November 18th with the SAAC students to discuss the previous year’s exit surveys. (Note: The number of meetings for the 2019-2020 were down from previous years. This was due to the problems associated with COVID-19). The meeting with SAAC is the best means for FCCIA to understand how the students feel about their student-athlete experience here at CSU. The results of that meeting are reproduced here.

Four members of FCCIA met with SAAC on October 8th, and three met with SAAC on April 16th in the 3rd floor conference room of McGraw. We assured the group that what is said in the meeting will be kept in confidence and that we are charged with looking out for their welfare as student athletes. Traditionally, we use the athletic survey to guide our questioning of SAAC. However, a version of the survey results was not available for our review. (We have since volunteer to create a survey for future use). Therefore, we used our experience with issues affecting student athletes to guide our questions.

FCCIA Notes from SAAC Meeting

November 18th, 2019

FCCIA members present: Todd Donavan, Heidi Zuniga, Kevin Crooks, Shane Kanatous, Karen Hyllegard, and Mike Wilkins

The FCCIA members visited with members of SAAC to address any low scores on the 2019 athletic survey and any other topics of concern to the student-athletes.

Travel Meals

The first question addressed was the relatively low score given to “meal quality” while traveling. When questioned about this issue student athletes were not concerned about the food on away trips.

Tutoring

Still have some issues with students having access to tutors for their upper division classes as well as unqualified tutors at the introductory levels.

The accounting lab closes at 4:00 when the athletes are not out of practice until 3:30. Is there a way to make an adjustment with the lab times?

Suggestion of having the course instructors suggest possible tutors possibly the TA2

Student were also interested in possibly being tutors for other athlete as possible community hours offset or for credit

Athletes still have issues with some professors not allowing them to make up exams or being available for meetings outside of regular office hours.

The most disturbing case was a student athlete with a diagnosed concussion, medical diagnosis, case management case being forced to take an exam and failing. This may be a case where the case management worker should step in and contact the instructor, and/or faculty council should discuss the issue of what are the rules for taking exams after a student has a concussion. We as members of FCCIA are willing to talk to those parties involved or have Kyle initiate this discussion.

Some student with scheduled medical procedures not being accommodated.

Some students mentioned professors who made public and disrespectful comments about the athletic performance of the team with the students in class.

Also, some issues with transparency between the athletic administration and the students about the state of certain issues or ongoing problems
Suggestion was to distribute the names and emails of the FCCIA members so athletes would know who they to contact with some of these issues in a timelier fashion.

It was also suggested that we attend some of the opening meetings with the teams to introduce ourselves and our roles

Leadership and Committee Composition

- Jenny Morse served as Chair for 2019-20 and has been reelected for 2020-2021.
- Steve Benoit served as Vice-Chair for 2019-2020 and has been reelected for 2020-2021.
- Christine Pawliuk has volunteered to serve as Webmaster for Spring 2020.
- Jamie Neilson, CNS, was elected to serve as a tenure-track member of our committee.

Business

Reporting: For the upcoming 2020-2021 Academic Year, CoNTTF expects to continue advocating for Contract appointments, identifying challenges NTTF face especially in light of the CoVID-19 circumstances and overwhelming uncertainty, and work with Institutional Research to prepare data-driven reports on the state of NTTF at CSU.

Identifying NTTF: INTO faculty continue to be an outlier in Institutional Research and shared governance, as do Affiliate Faculty, APs who have teaching responsibilities, and any Extension employees who are converted to faculty. We will continue to communicate with and advocate for these groups as well as tracking numbers of Contract faculty and faculty who are kept or moved below 50% in the Adjunct category.

Advocacy: We have received reports of Contract appointments not being renewed as well as faculty being moved below 50% to be kept on in the Adjunct category. We must identify these problem areas and continue communicating with Faculty Council leadership and central administration to improve the circumstances of NTTF by following the manual in spirit and rule, rather than allowing people in power to circumvent the rules to the detriment of the faculty who serve the mission of the university.

Pay: Salary compression is a serious concern for our new Senior and Master Instructor ranks. As the base pay is raised over the next few years, those who earned the new rank earlier may fall behind. For example, a more experienced faculty member (6+ years of experience) making $45,000 in 2019 earned a promotion and 10% salary increase to then make $49,500 in 2020. A less-experienced faculty (5 years of experience) making $45,000 in 2019, benefits from the base-pay increase of 2020 to make $48,000. If this less-experienced faculty member also earns a promotion and 10% salary increase in 2021, this person now will be making $56,100 or $6,600 more than their more-experienced colleague. Therefore, it will be essential to set a band for Senior and Master Instructor rank pay and to have it reviewed each year as the base pay is increased to ensure that those with more years of service at any given rank are compensated appropriately.

Further areas for work include

- Working with CoFG on the Section C proposals that were sent to them in December 2019 and again in April 2020
- Working with Faculty Council leadership and the Provost’s Office to create the Administrator Award proposed in March 2020
- Facilitating the annual NTTF Reception, which did not occur this year as we transitioned to a new president
- Creating a record of grievances & issues brought to the CoNTTF and their outcomes
- Encouraging NTTF voting representatives on all remaining Faculty Council Standing Committees:
  - Committee on Faculty Governance
  - Committee on Libraries
  - Committee on Responsibilities and Standing of Academic Faculty
  - Committee on Scholarship, Research, & Graduate Education
  - Committee on University Programs
  - University Curriculum Committee
- Identifying and report on voting rights for NTTF in departments and colleges
- Ask for an audit of the budget, particularly to investigate how NTTF are being paid

V. Graphic Representations of data from Institutional Research

Dan Baker worked with Institution Research to capture data from Fall 2019 in order to create a more concrete picture of the current circumstances of non-tenure track faculty at CSU. Below are the graphics he created to represent that data.

There were no dismissal appeals necessary after spring 2020 due to the changes in the scholastic standards policies due to the coronavirus pandemic.

Note: While not optimal, committee members reviewed appeal requests online before the committee meetings when they were unable to attend the actual meetings due to short-term or extended travel or other professional conflicts.

A. Fall 2019
Original Appeals:
· 115 total appeals (vs. 143 in Fall 2018 and 112 in Fall 2017)
· 5 not eligible and not reviewed
· 18 earned a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher (did not need to be reviewed)
Of the 110 reviewed:
· 48 granted with an average 8.15 QPD (vs. 84 granted 2018 with average 9.5 QPD)
  o 32 received information about investigating a potential retroactive withdrawal
  o This continues the trend to granting appeals for higher levels of Quality Point Deficiency and increasing numbers of students who should consider a retroactive withdrawal.
· 44 denied with an average 24.61 QPD (vs. 43 denied 2018 with average 25.3 QPD)
  o 20 received information about investigating a potential retroactive withdrawal.

B. Spring 2020
Due to COV-19, no dismissal appeals were accepted.

Leadership and Committee Composition

  o Karen Barrett continued to serve as Chair for 2019 – 2020 and has agreed to serve 2020 - 2021.
  o Two new committee members joined in fall 2019 – Michael Gross in Business and Zach Johnson in Agricultural Sciences.
  o Madlyn D’Andrea rejoined the Committee on an interim basis replacing Rebecca Villalpando.

Business

The primary business for the year was the changing of the scholastic standards policies during spring semester due to the coronavirus pandemic. No student progressed on to probation, on to second semester probation nor was dismissed. An additional review of retroactive withdrawal requests was held in June, to allow students an additional chance to proceed in good standing. In April, all committee meetings were held online and will continue to do so in the fall. New members for fall have not been determined at this time.

MEETINGS & PARTICIPATION: The Committee on Strategic & Financial Planning (CoSFP) held meetings during the academic year regularly on the second Mondays of the month at 2:00-3:30 pm in room 106 of the Administration Building with some exceptions for conflicts with university holidays and related matters. Details on meeting attendance are documented in meeting minutes and the attached attendance records. Meeting style switched mid-semester from face-to-face to on-line in accordance with the university policy changes driven by the pandemic.

No changes to CoSFP Operating Procedures were made during this Academic Year.

REPRESENTATION ON UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES: The Chair participated and represented CoSFP interests at the Council of Deans and at Faculty Council meetings, schedule permitting. The Chair was also asked to participate in the ad hoc University Advisory Recovery Committee whose “Primary activity was to recommend strategies for reducing expenditures within the Educational and General Budget to be in line with projected resources, University priorities and initiatives.”
CHANGES TO PROPOSAL REVIEW PROCESS: During this year the Committee continued its deeper involvement with the Catalog and Curriculum Management System consisting of permitting all of the Committee membership (not only the Committee Chair) to access Proposed Program documents and receive electronic invitations to be informed when such items are available. This deeper involvement was judged to be helpful and sufficiently unobtrusive to continue it through the next academic year.

PROPOSED PROGRAM REVIEWS: The Committee reviewed documents from the following Proposed Programs and received presentations from the Program Proposers. All Programs were approved by the Committee with varying degrees of advice and recommendation. The reviewed, advised and approved Programs are:

- CELL & MOLECULAR BIOLOGY GRADUATE PROGRAM CONVERSION TO SPECIAL ACADEMIC UNIT (SAU)
- CREATION OF THE MASTER OF SPORT MANAGEMENT
- CREATION OF THE MASTER OF PUBLIC POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION
- NAME CHANGE OF LEADERSHIP, ENTREPRENEURSHIP, ARTS ADVOCACY AND THE PUBLIC (LEAP) INSTITUTE FOR THE ARTS TO ARTS MANAGEMENT
- CREATION OF THE SCHOOL OF ADVANCED MATERIALS DISCOVERY AS A SAU
- CREATION OF THE BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE AND THREE CONCENTRATIONS IN AGRICULTURAL BIOLOGY
- CREATION OF THE BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS IN DANCE DEGREE
- CREATION OF THE DOCTOR OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY DEGREE
- CREATION OF THE PHD IN MUSIC THERAPY DEGREE

COMMITTEE ISSUES:
The determination of the optimal position for CoSFP review in the Proposed Program process continues to be an incompletely resolved issue. Improvements in the process have been made and will be evaluated in the next academic year.

ACTIVITIES & ACCOMPLISHMENTS: The Committee continues to be a voice for mindfulness and oversight to Administration concerning the integration of strategic planning and budgeting initiatives especially for new programs through its critical and independent review.

The Committee expanded its examination of recently (over the past several years) installed Programs to review the actual performance (recruitment, enrollment, etc. plus overall financial) of these Programs with an eye to providing a tool to both future applicants and the Administration.
At its 4 May 2020 meeting the Committee unanimously voted to re-elect Joseph DiVerdi as Committee Chair for the next academic year (AY 2020-2021).

6. CSU Online invited to join CoTL as ex officio member

7. Motion to amend General Catalog - repeated courses
   a. CoTL endorsed a formal motion to FC at the May 2020 meeting to amend the general catalog to address grade inflation concerns related to repeating course where a high grade has already been earned. This motion was shared with the Faculty Council Executive Committee in May, and will be resubmitted in the Fall 2020 term for formal consideration.

8. UDTS discussions
   a. CoTL is engaged in ongoing discussions with the UDTS faculty on the definition of the UDTS designation, the qualifications, nomination, and selection process. Any formal recommendations that emerge will be shared with Faculty Council for consideration.

9. Provost’s Ethics Colloquium
   a. CoTL was involved in the planning and hosting of the annual Provost’s Ethics Colloquium (Fall 2019). CoTL strongly supports continued investment in this important annual series. From the description on the Provost’s Ethics Colloquium website:

   "The Provost’s Ethics Colloquium and CSU’s Center for Public Deliberation hosted a discussion and community conversation, Beyond Partisan Politics: Bridging Divides by Overcoming Our Echo Chambers, on Friday, November 8th in the Lory Student Center Theater.

   Participants represented a diverse set of perspectives. While Joan Blades, founder of MoveOn.org and MomsRising.org, takes a progressive view, she advocates dialogue across difference through Living Room Conversations. Similarly, John Gable, who works in Silicon Valley and earlier worked for Sen. Mitch McConnell, takes a conservative view, yet urges us to engage a full range of perspectives on issues through his start-up AllSides, designed specifically to address the biases caused by “filter bubbles.” Pedro Silva is a USAF Veteran and trained linguist who currently serves as an Associate Minister at the First Congregational Church Boulder, UCC. He has a passion for using expansive conversational models such as Living Room Conversations to engage subjects such as race, ethnicity, and political discourse."

To: Tim Gallagher, Chair, Faculty Council  From: Matt Hickey, Chair, Committee on Teaching and Learning  Subject: Report from the Task Force on Institutional Learning Objectives

The Committee on Teaching and Learning submits the following report from the Task Force on Institutional Learning Objectives (ILOs).

Background:

The most recent accreditation visit to CSU from the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) resulted in a suggestion to consider developing ILOs to frame the undergraduate curriculum. By stating the knowledge, skills, attitudes, and habits of mind an institution’s graduates should demonstrate, ILOs clarify for current and prospective students, families, instructors, and other internal and external stakeholders the value of an education at that institution. During a 2017 Fall Forum session, Kelly Long, Laura Jensen, and Matt Hickey shared the rationale for developing ILOs, examples of peer institutions’ ILOs, and explanations of how these institutions developed their ILOs, then led a discussion of options for how to proceed at CSU. Following the Fall Forum, the Provost’s Office asked the Committee on Teaching and Learning (CoTL) to constitute and charge a Task Force with developing ILOs for CSU. The Task Force was constituted in October 2017 and met throughout the Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 terms. In April 2018, the Task Force submitted a preliminary report to CoTL, recommending that stakeholder input be sought on the draft ILOs. From May-October 2018, CoTL solicited and received this stakeholder input. The Task Force was reconvened in November 2018 and used this input to revise the ILOs over the next several months. CoTL received formal recommendations on ILOs from the Task Force in February 2019. The ILOs were discussed and edited in CoTL at the February 25 and March 11 meetings. CoTL formally endorsed the ILOs at the March 11 meeting, and the report was discussed at the September 6th UCC meeting. The draft graphic shared on the final page of the report was designed by one of the Task Force members, and simply serves to show the interconnectedness of the ILOs; they are not meant to “stand alone”.

Introduction

In the Fall 2017 term, the Provost’s Office invited the Faculty Council Standing Committee on Teaching and Learning (CoTL) to form a Task Force to develop recommendations regarding Institutional Learning Objectives (ILOs) to help provide a framework for the overall educational mission at CSU. The impetus for developing ILOs arose from the most recent Higher Learning Commission (HLC) accreditation visit, when a suggestion was made that CSU consider developing ILOs. Nationally, many of our peer institutions have articulated ILOs to frame institutional educational objectives and help provide a coherent framework within which individual course and programmatic learning outcomes can be oriented.

ILOs are meant to provide a framework for curricular and co-curricular coherence; in principle, the ILOs are conceptually linked to the university Principles of Community and individual course-level and program-level student learning outcomes (SLOs). By design, the SLOs within any given course or program may justifiably be aligned with one or more ILOs as part of the overall curricular and cocurricular framework. The alignment between SLOs and ILOs allows for coherent curricular and program mapping and design, affords opportunities for reflection on the relationship between the AllUniversity Core Curriculum (AUCC) and disciplinary coursework, and can provide students a framework for understanding the coherence between AUCC, discipline-specific, elective coursework, and co-curricular learning. Moreover, ILOs make explicit the guiding principles that form the basis of the educational experience at Colorado State University.

Colorado State University Institutional Learning Objectives

An education at CSU is an opportunity for rigorous engagement with people and ideas in an environment built on the foundation of intellectual diversity and the free exchange of ideas that are at the heart of academic and intellectual freedom and oriented toward the common good. The pursuit of learning is rooted in our fundamental commitment to diverse viewpoints, open inquiry, and constructive disagreement in our pursuit of scholarship and learning. This commitment is manifested as the sustained willingness to engage with and understand different perspectives, ideas, histories, and approaches to solving complex social problems - and the attendant responsible exercise of freedom of speech and freedom of association – that form the basis for the vibrant academic life of the university. It is equally manifested through practice in the components of a traditional liberal education - employing the habits of mind, stimulating imagination, developing appreciation for the creative arts, developing the ability to communicate effectively in speech and writing, and understanding the ethical implications and societal applications of discoveries in science and technology. Here, these components are joined with the distinctive features of a CSU education, including the consistent pursuit of environmental sustainability, multidisciplinary approaches to human and animal health, and our sustained commitment to equity and inclusive excellence that is oriented toward expanding educational opportunity and building collaborative communities that apply and adapt knowledge to pursue solutions to the complex problems that impact the citizens of Colorado, the United States, and the world. This commitment reflects our land-grant mission of access, excellence, and engagement to inspire responsible citizenship and promote lifelong learning and community development inside and outside the classroom. As a research-intensive university, CSU is committed to designing and delivering curricula informed by the best scholarship in the art and science of teaching and learning. This commitment to the science of teaching and learning informs our approach to continuous improvement in delivering on our educational mission. Given these foundational commitments, the CSU Institutional Learning Objectives (ILOs) toward which our educational experience and mission are oriented include:

Creativity

Education for creativity includes the development of an understanding of the ways in which the arts and sciences support expression of the diversity of the human experience and human community, and the development of the ability to apply creative skills in problem solving; it stimulates the imagination to inform new ways of understanding our place in the world and contributes to innovative solutions addressing the challenges we face locally and globally.

Reasoning

Education for reasoning includes the development and application of logic, analytic and synthetic skills, the reflective discovery and use of information, the ability to identify and understand problems, ask effective questions, understand and apply ethical principles appropriate to the task(s) and communities at hand, and the application of requisite knowledge and skills as part of multidisciplinary approaches to key challenges at all levels of society.

Communication

Education for personal and professional expression includes the development of written and oral communication skills for technical, professional, and public audiences. These skills include developing the capacity to listen substantively and communicate effectively and respectfully in settings where a variety of viewpoints, cultures, identities, and objectives may intersect; skills central to effective and equitable communication in a diverse society.

Responsibility

Education for personal and social responsibility is built upon an understanding of the social and educational advantages of viewpoint diversity and the ability to learn from those with perspectives, histories, cultures, and identities different from our own. Personal and social responsibility involves shared deliberation on the just ordering of political and legal systems, the presence of and options for responding to systemic barriers to equity and inclusiveness, and an understanding of the interconnectedness of societies worldwide. Finally, personal and social responsibility also includes understanding and being able to articulate and justify the values and principles involved in personal decision-making, taking responsibility for our own actions, speech, and reasoned convictions, engaging in critical reflection, and as warranted, self-correction or principled dissent; as well as understanding and participating in relevant governance systems.

Collaboration

Education for collaboration is oriented toward the effective and sustainable stewardship of human, economic, and environmental resources. This involves developing cooperative and mutually beneficial relationships with others; understanding of the advantages of shared discourse, open inquiry, and constructive disagreement regarding proposed solutions to social problems; demonstrating skill in guiding and assisting a group, organization, or community in meeting its goals; understanding the dynamics of a group and exhibiting democratic principles as a leader or group member; and communicating a vision, mission, or purpose that encourages commitment and action in others.

In order to deliver on these Institutional Learning Objectives, CSU graduates will throughout their education be immersed in sustained engagement with and reflection upon the interrelated core and discipline-specific knowledge domains including:
• Creative and Aesthetic Expression
• Ethical Foundations of Sciences and Societies
• Economic and Financial Literacy • Natural, Physical, Social and Behavioral Scientific Knowledge
• Qualitative and Quantitative Methods for Acquiring, Interpreting, and Using Data
• Historical Knowledge
• Civic and Political Knowledge
• Cultural and Global Knowledge

These domains undergird the specific knowledge and skills requisite to contribute to society as graduates of CSU. They are integrated in a curricular and co-curricular design that prepares students for success both as professionals and as responsible and self-aware community citizens who are equipped to be lifelong learners.

Re: Committee on University Programs Report – 2019-2020

The Committee on University Programs is responsible for reviewing new applications and for oversight of all Centers, Institutes, and Other Special Units (CIOSUs) on a biennial basis. Each Administrative Director of each CIOSU selected for biennial review submits a brief report of its activities and accomplishments. Copies of all biennial reports are kept in the Office of the Vice President for Research, who is responsible for maintaining the updated list of all CIOSUs. Committee business was primarily conducted online by email and document exchange throughout the year.

Below is the list of the CUP committee members with their terms:

II. The following application is proposed to be recommended for renewal with suggestions to enhance the performance of this CIOSU:

1. WCNS- Westfire Center- It will be revisiting its strategic plan and goals due to transition in leadership; expect them to continue their strong contributions to the field.
III. NOT qualified applications at their current status- The reasons for not qualified are listed.
   I. WCNS- Applied Isotope Research for Industry and the Environment (AIRIE) since both Department Head and the Dean suggested against the renewal.
   II. WSCOE- Composite Materials, Manufacture and Structures Laboratory - There is only one listed faculty member. The applicant has decided to withdraw the application.
   III. CHHS- Avenir Museum of Design and Merchandising – The applicant lacks listed faculty members from more than one academic unit and there is a change in the leadership. Applicants requested postponement of this application to next year.

IV. New CIOSU applications

Four new applications were reviewed and evaluated during 2019-2020: Colorado State University Open Press, Center for Environmental Justice, Center for Professional Selling, Center for Human-Carniore Coexistence. The Centers for Human-Carniore and Environmental Justice were recommended for the approval; the other two centers were found to be insufficient for the approval as a new CIOSU.

‘Temp. Stop Admission’ category: New category this year to track requests to temporarily stop admissions to programs and to have this noted in the Catalog. One previous request in 2017-18 was reported in the ‘Other’ category.

‘Other’ category: Includes moving the administrative unit for WS subject code and programs and documentation of various requests.

6) Administrative Updates processed by the Curriculum & Catalog Unit on behalf of UCC:
   - 8% decrease compared to 2018-19 (first year we kept track of administrative updates)
‘Credit Not Allowed Statement’ category: Added CNA statements to affected courses when UCC approved adding statement to corresponding course.

‘Course Deactivation’ category: Removed deactivated courses from program requirements (21 program updates processed for 9 course deactivations).

‘New Dual-list’ category: The CIM system was upgraded this year to automatically update program tables when dual-listing is added/removed/changed through course proposals, so we no longer need to update programs manually.

‘Updates/Corrections’ category: Administratively updated/corrected programs and courses for course credit changes, course repeatability statements, withdrawn/reversed proposals, effective terms, titles, prerequisite/registration information, etc.

7) Other Business:

- Updates to Curricular Policies & Procedures Handbook, including the Study Abroad section (10/4/2019) • Approved Curriculum Deadlines for 2020-2021 for actions effective Spring 2021-Fall 2022 (5/1/2020)
