

The Manual Change Process

The Manual is a living document reflecting current needs informed by deliberative processes.

